The Workings of Power: Why we live to prosper, or suffer and die Hector R. Alexander

The Workings of Power – takes a direct and philosophical approach to the human condition that most of us in any society are faced with on a daily basis throughout life. We are being conditioned to accept a “lie” in a society that gives nothing back to Nature. The understanding of this book was to take an honest study of a system, and give a very honest verdict back to the cookie cutter societies of this world and found someone vital was absent – “you”! You are currently absent from life, and living the way it was intended...
