Drawing heavily on the experiences of men and women living with spinal cord injury (SCI), this candid and compassionate guide covers the important sexual issues facing individuals with SCI, including anatomy, fertility, sexually transmitted diseases, self-esteem, sexual satisfaction, and parenting. This handbook relays to-the-point advice while acknowledging that people have different lifestyles, tastes, values, and orientations. The convenient question-and-answer format allows individuals with SCI to explore their questions in private and at their own pace.
