Book Description

Google Classroom helps teachers bring their work online. According to Google Trends, it's already bigger than Moodle after barely a year in the wild. This book is a complete start-to-finish guide for teachers using Google Classroom for the first time. It explains what Google Classroom is, what it can do, how to set it up, and how to use it to enhance student learning while making your life as a teacher easier. It shows you how to place resources and activities online, gather assignments, and develop group and individual activities. It's not just a manual, you'll also discover inspiring, easy ways to put Google Classroom to work for you and your class.

What you will learn

- Create a Google Classroom and add customized information for each individual class
- Add students to a Google Classroom
- Send announcements and questions to students
- Create, distribute, collect, and grade assignments through Google Classroom
- Add events to and share a Google Classroom's calendar with parents
- Reuse posts, archive classrooms, and perform other administrative tasks in Google Classroom
- Use Google Docs Add-ons, and Google Chrome Webstore Apps and Extensions to enhance assignments
- Set up Google Classroom's mobile app

About the Author

Michael Zhang is a certified trainer for Google Apps for Education. Mike Zhang's post-secondary degree is in Education and he works within a school district in Canada. Therefore, he is in contact with a large population of teachers and often questions them regarding modern technologies within the classroom. Occasionally, he teaches classes as well and has opportunities to use Google Apps for education for a consistent set of students. Furthermore, he facilitates technology training at the University of Alberta in Google Apps. This makes him able to communicate the technology in a comprehensible manner to his readers.
