Visit the Wonderful World of Dublin and Friends

It has been a hard few years for Dublin, a misunderstood and grumpy horse that nobody likes. He has been left in the care of Bransby horses, a charity that takes in and rehomes horses, ponies and donkeys and he thinks he has no hope of finding a new home until one special lady visits the centre one day and soon Dublin's life changes forever!

This heartwarming series of stories follows Dublin as he finally finds happiness with his new owner, Beth. He meets new friends along the way and they become a trio of mischief with fun adventures and comical situations but danger lurks around the corner too.

Can a horse that once hated people and fellow horses change his ways? What adventures will he encounter and can his new friends stand by him?
