Comments from clergy and couples: "We have been blessed personally by the concepts and materials contained in 10 Great Dates over the years. It has been a delight for us to pass on this principle of time together for spouses by using the 10 Great Dates material and video series. We have used it in two churches directly and helped at least two other churches use it as well. The material is very easy to use. It has been very well received by everyone attending, and there has been overwhelming requests to offer it again. Many have told their friends about it, and some just want to do it again. It is very nonthreatening and works great for community outreach." "I drove past this church and never stopped in before this. I had no idea what you (the church) had to offer my family." "The kids were looking forward to their 'date' as much as my wife and I were! They wouldn't let me miss it even when my wife was out of town. " "This program was very helpful to give my husband and me time to talk to each other and not just talk about marriage." "Our pastor thought that 10 Great Dates worked the best of any other thing the church had tried for outreach to the community!" "My husband would never come to church with me before, but he felt very safe coming to 10 Great Dates." "With small children, it's so hard to get time together for just us. Thank you!" "10 Great Dates was the best thing that ever happened to us as a couple to strengthen our marriage." "When I think about how programs usually run in a church, the programs typically talk at us and then we talk about it and we even talk about applying it, but just a few of us really and truly do it ... 10 Great Dates provides a safe and fun environment to actually do something about our marriages, and it actually works to build our marriages little by little." "My husband and I are grateful for such a wonderful tool to use for encouraging others as well."
