Convulsão protestante: Quando a teologia foge do templo e abraça a rua (Portuguese Edition) Antonio Carlos Costa

Muitos dos que acompanham as criativas e contundentes manifestações contra a violência e a desigualdade social e em favor dos direitos humanos, em especial na cidade do Rio de Janeiro, cuja eloquência e impacto alcançam a mídia em todo o planeta, não fazem ideia de que, por trás desse movimento, está um pastor cujo ministério sofreu uma guinada espetacular.

Em "Convulsão protestante", Antônio Carlos Costa relata por que decidiu dar uma reviravolta em sua carreira ministerial e lançar-se na desconhecida e imprevisível jornada em favor da massa empobrecida deste país.

Engana-se quem espera do autor um texto panfletário, de pena viciada pelos usos e abusos da retórica marxista. Antônio é um pensador e articulador atento ao texto bíblico que, em dado momento, foi confrontado por Deus a agir.

"Convulsão protestante" ajudará o leitor a compreender por que o crescimento acelerado do cristianismo em nosso país não resultou em uma sociedade mais justa e digna para todos.
