Los mitos del franquismo (Historia) (Spanish Edition) Pío Moa

A los cuarenta años de la muerte de Franco, Pío Moa ?como ya hiciera en Los mitos de la guerra civil, del que se han vendido más de 300.000 ejemplares? aborda una etapa crucial de la historia de España, la del franquismo, paradesmontar los tópicos falsos, consagrados a lo largo de los años como si fueran verdades.

Porque pocas historias han sido tan mitificadas en pro o en contra como la del franquismo, y sustituir la historia real por mitos perturba el presente y el porvenir. De hecho, entender aquella época es indispensable para entender la actual. Hoy permanecen numerosas consecuencias de su régimen y cuestiones no resueltas. Este libro trata de responder, entre otras muchas preguntas, a ¿qué representó Franco en la historia del siglo xx? ¿Por qué surgió y qué problemas pretendió resolver? ¿Derrotó a una democracia? ¿Por qué no entró en la guerra mundial? ¿Cuál fue su papel en la guerra fría? ¿Cuántos y quiénes sufrieron la represión de posguerra? ¿Por qué fracasaron el maquis, el juanismo y el aislamiento internacional? ¿Por qué su oposición fue sobre todo comunista? ¿Cómo evolucionó el PCE y qué ha significado la ETA? ¿Qué efecto tuvo el viraje de la Iglesia en los años sesenta? ¿Qué hizo posible el tránsito a la democracia?

Para comprender el franquismo, el autor ha juzgado preciso insertarlo dentro de los movimientos generales europeos, estableciendo de paso comparaciones entre Franco y políticos de su tiempo como Mussolini, Hitler, Roosevelt, Churchill, Adenauer, De Gasperi o De Gaulle. Al analizar de forma crítica las distintas versiones sobre aquella crucial época histórica, este estudio abre un nuevo campo a la investigación y el debate. Pues mirar al futuro será inútil sin atender al pasado. En palabras de Cicerón: «Si ignoras lo que pasó antes de que nacieras, siempre serás un niño». Y una sociedad infantilizada se incapacita para afrontar los retos de la historia.
