Mama Tenga: Ma vie africaine (French Edition) Katrin Rohde

Après un voyage audacieux en Afrique de l'Ouest, qui changera à jamais sa vie, Katrin Rohde décide de vendre tout ce qu'elle possède et quitte l'Allemagne pour le Burkina Faso. Elle raconte comment elle a commencé à s'occuper des enfants des rues de Ouagadougou, capitale du pays. Des enfants vivants dans la plus grande misère confrontés à la faim, aux drogues et à la criminalité.

Dans les années suivantes Katrin Rohde a fondé un grand nombre d'institutions pour les enfants et adolescents : orphelinats et maisons d'accueil pour femmes, dispensaire, différents ateliers avec des places de formation, centres d'aide et d'accueil pour filles et femmes et bien plus encore. Et toujours en suivant un principe strict : « l'aide à l'autonomie ».

Katrin Rohde a su réaliser ses idées et projets dans des conditions souvent difficiles avec beaucoup de détermination, de courage et de discipline mais également d'humour et d'impassibilité africaine. Là-bas aujourd'hui tout le monde connaît Katrin Rohde sous le nom de Mama Tenga - « Mère Patrie ».

Une autobiographie passionnante et colorée qui fait preuve d'humanité et nous offre un aperçu plus qu'inhabituel des vérités africaines et de la vie des habitants du Burkina Faso.
