Marea negra: 54 (La Escritura Invisible) (Spanish Edition) Luis Pineda

Marea negra cuenta el origen multicultural de Brasil en el siglo XVI a través de tres personajes que comparten sus diferencias durante una accidentada travesía de las costas de África a los asentamientos portugueses en América del Sur: un discípulo de Miguel Ángel en la Capilla Sixtina que acabará de capitán de una carraca negra, un bereber que en su huida de la mancebía de Rabat y de su origen será el piloto de la nave, y La Mamba, una joven vendida por su tío a los tratantes árabes para sumarla a un lote de esclavos destinados a sustituir a los indios del Nuevo Mundo en las labores más infames. Marea negra no es sólo una novela de aventuras, es también una novela de formación y crecimiento y el relato de la vida de una mujer excepcional. La Mamba aprenderá a sobrevivir a un naufragio, a una picadura venenosa y descubrirá que hablar y comprender la lengua portuguesa le da poder. Con tenacidad ejemplar se sobrepone a las fuerzas que la oprimen, a las condiciones de un mundo que le es adverso porque de ningún modo admite que una mujer sea dueña de su vida y su destino.
