Essay from the year 2010 in the subject Pharmicology, Atlantic International University, language: English, abstract: Physical Therapy uses Physical means and agents to habilitate and rehabilitate patients/clients. Drug and medication do not form part of physical therapy. But it will be incorrect to claim that physical therapy operates 100% with just physical means.

In chest, neuro, cardio-pulmonary etc. medications are used to suppliment the intrevention. This essay attempts to address those drugs that are frequently encountered by the physical therapists in their daily practice.
